THE GREATEST NEWSPAPER.

Of course, it is gratifying to know that The Herald-Republican has become the greatest newspaper in Utah.
There is a keen satisfaction in knowing that this paper has more circulation than any two other papers in the city.
It is immensely gratifying to be assured that it excels all local competitors in the volume of business done.

And naturally, one looks about to see why. There is only one reason, and that is simplicity itself. The paper deserves it. The owners of The Herald-Republican have from the beginning been fair with the people. Their paper has been just and honest. It has given the news, and the service. Against tremendous difficulties it has won its way from a small beginning to the foremost place—to a place of very great lead over all others—simply because it deserves to be there.

We are happy to assure the public that the greatest newspaper of the people.

WILLIAM TAFT, OUR NEIGHBOR.

That is one of the effects of the President's coming. He becomes something more definite and understandable to the people of the mighty west. Instead of an impersonal and distant removed conception, the President of the United States becomes an appreciable part of the populace out of which he has been selected. He is the neighbor of every man.

The people and the government get nearer together. There is more charity in the general mind for failures, the reason or excuse for which they could not see, of the effects of which they were impatient.

In no other way in the world could the millions understand the big problems—AND THE BIG DIFFICUL-TIES! The general horizon is broadened immensely because of the visit of the nation's chief executive.

And if the people learn of the President, and gain needed viewpoints because of his coming and his conferences with them, be assured he gains something of equal value from his contact with the people of the west. And the administration will be the more successful because people and President understand each other better, have a better confidence in each other—and know that the future will hold the very best results possible of human accomplishment.

"MINE OWN PEOPLE."

Americans have cause of gratulation that only twenty-seven million out of the possible hundred million people in the United States are of foreign birth.
It was supposed the number must be much larger.

That means that this is an American nation; that the great preponderance of the citizens are born under the stars and stripes; that the principles of the republic are the natural birthright of the individual.

Big as is the immigration element, it must realize the same fate of the smaller body everywhere and always.
The force of gravity will always go with the larger body. The immigrant will catch step with the native American because the force of his stronger environment will compel it. He can no more remain a German or a Russian or a Frenchman here, retaining the sentiments and ideals of his fatherland, than a drop of ink could maintain its identity in a stream of clear water. His birthright traditions fall away from him. He partakes of the loves and the aspirations and the prejudices of his neighbors. And because of that transforming force, he becomes a good American citizen.

The native-born millions of the United States can fervently clasp hands with the honest immigrant who comes to make part in the life of the republic, because as certainly as progress of the suns, they are all of our own people.

SALT LAKE AND THE FLYING MACHINE.

One Floyd Curtiss, brother of the world's champion flying man, was in the city recently, and he said he believed this the best place in the world for aviators. The great stretches of level ground, the great lake of buoyant water, the low average wind velocity, conspire to make Salt Lake the place for men who are learning to fly.

And that looks like sound reason.
Surely there is no other place combining the very qualities which the aero-plane needs. The buoyancy of water in the Great Salt Lake is without equal in all the western hemisphere. And only in the Dead sea of Palestine can another like it be found. Which makes Salt Lake about the one claimant for honors. It would be worth money to get the flying men to come here. They would turn the attention of the world to Salt Lake. They would make the city famous for mighty things.

One of these days, and out of all the experimenting that is going forward in the conflict with air, some man is going to solve the problem, pierce the secret of the birds. He is going really to fly.

Nowhere else on earth is there a place where he can maintain his school so successfully as here. Think of the advantage of landing in the lake, and being borne up, motor and all, till rescue reaches him. That is worth much to the flying men.

In is, worth while to make an effort.
Those men are looking for the most helpful accessories. Their questions are answered in this city.

NOW THEY HAVE A HOME.

All members of the board of county commissioners are to be thanked by the people for the purchase of property on which to establish a detention home.
The place secured is pretty nearly ideal.
The location is right, the plant is capable of being made very good, indeed, and the price paid is not unreasonable.
Boys who have started wrong will have a better chance to get on the right track. And as they grow older they will appreciate the help the community was to them in the day when they needed better direction.

Only one thing now is needed, and that is a like provision for the girls.
There are not a great many of them who start wrong, but the few are vastly worth saving. And a little effort and expense now will make all the difference between good and bad women a few years farther along.

The action of the commissioners is the more to be commended because it spells civic economy. Every boy who is saved at an expense of a thousand dollars is worth ten times that sum in direct values to the community when he reaches manhood. And to that valuation must be added the frightful charge expressed in caring for him if he should become a criminal.

And by the same logic it will be economy to take care of the girls quite as effectively.

A SAFE AND SANE PRESIDENT.

Surely the interests of the people are safe in the hands of President Taft.
His address at Omaha on Monday is an unmistakable evidence that he perfectly understands the problems that confront the nation, and that he has the wisdom to see the right solution, and the courage to declare it. Here is his statement touching combinations in restraint of trade:

All combinations to suppress competition, or to maintain a monopoly in whole or in part of interstate trade, are and should be in violation of the anti-trust law, and should be punished as such; and there is no room for the expression—reasonable or unreasonable—in this general view of the statute.

Large through the speech that same large view of serene equity marks the President's position. As he spoke of the tariff, indorsing the reductions of the new law and reaching forth for still further reductions in future, so in the vexing matter of trusts and combinations he has seen the right course, and has been brave enough to urge progress along that line.

The country is to be congratulated on the President's speeches on this great journey. Never before has a nation's chief executive made a tour under circumstances quite so favorable to the general good of the republic. And never before has the nation listened so intently or so profitably to the addresses made.

THE FREIGHT RATE HEARING.

Naturally the people of the west are looking with great interest to the coming freight rate hearing in Salt Lake before the interstate commerce commission. On the result of that inquiry depends much of value to every member of the commonwealth. And the one thing expected of the Commercial club's traffic bureau is that it present its case.

Before the hearing begins it would hardly be fitting to advocate any line of decision; to attack one side, or seek to advance the interest of the other. It is presumed the commission will decide the matters before it in such manner as to benefit the whole people. If the right shall prevail, that decision will be of help not alone to the citizens of Utah, but to the mountain country generally—and through this great section, to the best interests of the nation at large.

We believe the case has been carefully and adequately prepared. We believe it will be ably presented. We believe the commission is inspired with the sole purpose of arriving at the facts and pronouncing justice.

Surely with that the great case can be left to the appointed tribunal.

Meantime, we should not like to see attacks on either side from any source, pending the hearing, or while it is in progress. Such a course would partake as much of unwisdom as of bad taste.

CHURCHES AND CHILDREN.

In one of the Sunday meetings Dr.
Crane of Iliff Methodist church made a valuable suggestion. It was to the effect that improvement in method and advance in result might be attained by giving the young people the conduct of church affairs, put the responsibility upon them, and demand results.

He may have cut pretty close to the skirts of some elderly gentlemen who have stood before the congregations from time immemorial. But if he hit on a scheme that has no hope, it is because the young people will fail in the church when they don't fall outside.
Go up and down the earth, and you will note that the work is being done by young men. Of course, they don't know as much as we older people. But Gladstone once said the difference was that the young man didn't know what he could not do—and the old man did.
The young man starts straight ahead at the thing he cannot do. And because he is young and in earnest, he does it. He accomplishes the impossible. All over the country are young fellows achieving results which every one of their elderly associates will prove to you are utterly impossible.

If they can do that outside, why can't they within the enterprises of the church? We rather believe Dr. Crane has hit on a suggestion of more than common value. And it will be a wise generation that listens to suggestions.

TWO ITEMS FROM PRICE.

Here are two news paragraphs from the Carbon County News, which give the reader a good light on the affairs of men in other parts of the state:

J. W. Nixon of Huntington was in Price the first of the week making arrangements to ship a carload of the famous Castle Valley honey to Chicago.
Mr. Nixon says he is not getting quite as much for his honey this year as he did last season on account of considerably more being raised in the middle states than usual. However, there is always a demand for the Utah product at a higher price than for eastern honey.

E. A. Howard of Huntington came to Price the first of the week to get a new sawmill for the Castle Valley Coal company, to be used in getting out lumber and ties for the big coal mine at Cedar Creek and the ties to be used on the railroad connecting the Cedar Creek coal mine and the Southern Utah railroad near the Miller Creek coal mine. Howard says they are employing about fifty men and are rushing things rapidly so as to be ready for fall shipments of coal.

It helps to show the variety and the profitableness of Utah labor.

THE PRIDE OF RACE.

It is a good thing to be an American these times—more so than ever before.
Here is the nation of leaders. Here is the country of accomplishment. Here is the place of eminence in all achievement.

A little poem from the Baltimore Sun gives the keynote to the current song of patriotic praise:

We do the things that others dream,
We cross the dark unto the gleam; We fly while others try their wings;
"We" are the folks that do the things.

We lay the cables, tunnel hills, Harness our motors to the rills, Take the high air with dash of bird, Speak through unbridled leagues our word.

We people plains and tame the wild, Rear our great structures skyward piled,
Pierce with our shrieking engine's bell Void wastes and inaccessible.

We do the things, we act, we are;
Ours is the magic in the jar; Presto! and at our touch earth's need Pierces in some new-wrought dream of speed.

Unmeasured space is in our control,
We are the masters of the rills, Sea's depth, wind's strength, heat's sting, air's height, Come to our knees and drink the light.

One reads it and turns to the clarion call of Kipling, when he lighted the fires of praise for Englishmen:

Truly ye come of the blood; slower to bless than to ban, Little used to lie down at the bidding of any man.

Flesh of the flesh that I bred, bone of the bone that I bred, Stark as your sons shall be, stern as your fathers were.

There is no strife in the Anglo-Saxon family. But against the splendid egotism of the Englishman—and none has so magically voiced it as has Kipling—it is good to set the record of America's actual dominance; America's accomplishment; America's triumph in every field.

It is good to be an American.

NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR THEM.

There is nothing too good for a man who has done effective work in Salt Lake. And wherever they go, they get the best that is offered. Here is Jo T. Jenkins, first mining editor of the Republican, establishing himself as a broker in New York. His address is 43 Exchange Place, in the biggest city.
And a paragraph from his initial letter to the world is as follows:

That the clients of this house and the recipients of these letters may at all times be accurately informed and intelligently advised upon every and all offerings from the various cause and districts, our communication with them has been perfected as never before and to all orders or regulations or mail or wire immediate attention will be given.

Advices from New York are to the effect that Mr. Jenkins has caught step with the millionaires, and they are glad to walk with him. They will profit by consulting him, and we don't think the millionaires will hurt Jo much.

He is enjoying success because he won it. And there is a like lesson for every other man—here and elsewhere.

The Nephi Record is improving in appearance. Which is fitting, when you come to think that all the rest of Nephi has so splendidly advanced in the past three years.

The courts have held valid the Carbon county court house bonds, and immediately following big business houses are going up on the streets of Price. It is a good thing the progressivists won in the contest down there.

American Fork people are going to establish a public reading room and make the best places at least as attractive as any that can be found by the youth in the neighborhood. We have no doubt a library will outdraw a blind tiger, even if there were one of the latter establishments in American Fork.

In the matter of appeals to the interstate commerce commission President Taft is exactly right in declaring that the chief trouble has been due to the law's delays. And his suggestions for an improvement of that system will not be forgotten when congress shall again convene.

New buildings will have to be erected for the coming meeting of the state fair, and these are being provided.
There is every prospect of having the biggest and best exhibition in the history of the institution. It is one of the affairs in which every citizen of Utah is interested, and the betterment cannot be realized without the help of the people. With that, everything is possible.
